

From the NC record keeper and Top 10 recorder Hans van Meeteren
SCM Top 10, USMS All Star, and NC Swimmer of the year.

The 2013 SCM National Top 10 listings are posted on the USMS website (Events&Results/Top 10). The SCM season ends on December 31st, so the 2013 listings are compiled from all SCM meets that took place in 2013.

Just for the individual results there are over 5000 entries in the Top 10 list. Various filters are provided making looking at the results a lot easier. For NC the filter by LMSC provides interesting information. For 2013 a total of 91 swims of swimmers registered through the LMSC for NC made it into the Top 10. This is 17 more than for 2012 and 14 more than the 10 year average.

In the 40-44 age group Erika Braun scored three first places (three All Americans) in the SCM Top 10. In addition to her 10 first places in the 2013 SCY and LCM Top 10 listings she beat Wenke Seider from Southern Pacific for the All Star team. Wenke scored eight 1st places in the 2013 Top 10 listings. Congratulations to Erika for getting to the absolute top three years in a row.

The results of the 2013 SCM Top 10 count for the 2014 NC Swimmer of the Year Pool Awards. The results of the 2014 SCY and LCM Top 10 listings, tabulated at the closing of the SCY season on May 31st and the closing of the LCM season on September 30st, will count as well. The table below provides a compilation of the SCM point count.

Currently Kerry Lindauer is the leader of the run for the 2014 female pool swimmer of the year award. With 58 point she is in the lead, followed by Erika Braun with 51 points and Alicia Uhl with 36 points. For the men there is a tie between John Long and Jon Klein, each with 22 points, followed by Jerry Clark with 19 points. Ole Larson has accumulated more points than these three together, however he is not eligible for the award as he won it last year in the same age group. Nevertheless, hats off to Ole as he collected these points (77) in one swim meet swimming nine events.
